

Cable Company Names Officers, Board Members

Robert A. Monroe of Charlottesville was re-elected president of the Jefferson Cable Corp. Wednesday and stockholders elected these board members:

Monroe, W. Wright Harrison and Claude A. Jessup of Charlottesville, Malcolm Jones of Waynesboro, and Davis Weir, L. J. Holroid and David Penney, all of Washington.

Besides Monroe, officers named were George A. Rice of Washington, vice president; Holroid, secretary, and E. H. Larson of Fairfax County, treasurer.

The stockholders and directors voted to expand the company's activities not only in the present market — Charlottesville and Waynesboro—but into other parts of Virginia and neighboring states. Charlottesville would remain home base of the company.
